●●●●● Allow CASs to Suppress Legal Sex / Gender Block

Confirmation on Ranking Programs

The screenshot displays a web application interface for ranking programs. A modal dialog titled "Rank Programs" is centered on the screen. The dialog contains the following text:

Rank Programs

You must rank your programs before submitting your application. If you do not rank your programs, they will be ranked alphabetically by school name. Once you submit and pay for your programs, you cannot change your rankings.

OK

In the background, a table titled "Rank Programs for each Org" is visible. It has two columns: "RANK" and "PROGRAM NAME". The table lists three programs for "The Consortium for Graduate Study in":

RANK	PROGRAM NAME
1	University of Michigan - Ann Arbor
2	University of Wisconsin - Madison
3	Indiana University - Bloomington

Below the table, there is a "Total" section showing a fee of $200.00. To the right of the table, there is a "Continue" button. Below the "Continue" button, there is a checkbox and the text "I affirm that I have ranked the programs to my desired order."
